

Fremont Journal

EXTRA.

Wednesday Morning, April 17th.

A large and enthusiastic meeting irrespective of party, was held at Birchard Hall, in this place, last evening. Strong and patriotic resolutions were passed sustaining the Governor of the State in his call for men to support the honor of our flag.

New York, April 16th.—Special reports to the New York Post, says that the Governors of Kentucky, Virginia, North Carolina, and Missouri, refuse to respond for troops. Maryland, however, responds promptly, and Baltimore Regiment tendered services to President to-day. Quota for Massachusetts been doubled, and three regiments from Boston ordered here at once. Gen. James H. Lane, of Kansas, takes command of a thousand men here. Commercial's dispatch says George Ashmun sent to Canada on a secret mission. No orders are yet issued to blockade Southern ports, or stop mails, but has issued orders to Garrison Harpers Ferry, Forts Washington, Monroe, and others. One of the Massachusetts Regiments goes to Fort Monroe, with a New York Regiment. The route between Philadelphia and Washington will be guarded by Western troops.

New York, April 16.—At a meeting of Merchants of this city to-day, it was resolved that a call be issued for a Mass meeting irrespective of party to sustain the Constitution and laws.

Norwich, Conn., April 16th.—Gov. Buckingham has issued a proclamation, calling for volunteers to rendezvous at Hartford. The Thames Bank of this city has tendered $100,000 to Gov. Buckingham, and the Farmington County Bank has offered $50,000 dollars.

Rising Sun, Ia., 16th.—Our citizens are holding a meeting this evening, expressing sympathy with the Government. A company of volunteers is rapidly filling its ranks for immediate service. Secession sentiments are not tolerated in this community.

New Orleans, 16.—The market is depressed by the war news. Lincoln's war proclamation was read with no astonishment. Everybody is highly pleased. The people are resolved to maintain their position at all hazards. Two more volunteer companies left to-day for Pensacola to-day, and the rest will probably remain to defend the city. Volunteer regiments are forming throughout the State. Thirty-three deserters from the Federal army have landed at Fort Jackson, leaving 12 months pay behind them, so anxious were they to join the Confederate army. The steamer Le-compte hence for Shreveport, sunk 8 miles above Compt. Boat and cargo a total loss. Passengers and crew saved. The Galveston Civilian says that the idea that there is any considerable number of persons disposed to agitate the question of rebellion in Texas is erroneous.

Montgomery April 16.—The Cabinet were in council this A. M., Lincoln's Proclamation was read amid bursts of laughter. The Secretary of War authorizes the statement that 32,000 more troops were called out to-day to meet Lincoln's men.

Washington, April 16.—Col. Ellsworth has had strong inducements offered him to proceed to New York City and organize a regiment of Zouaves. If he does not go thither, he will repair to Illinois for a similar purpose. He has declined the commission in the army which was tendered him.

Richmond, April 16.—The Virginia Convention is in Secret Session this A. M. Reporters excluded, and consequently nothing is known of the proceedings. A telegram from Gov. Pickens to Hon. Henry A. Wise, says: It is reported that eleven vessels are off the bar, and are stopping vessels engaged in regular trade. The papers of this city express confidence that Gen. Scott will resign. The Richmond Whig hauled down the Stars and Stripes this A. M., and run up the flag of Virginia.

New Orleans, April 16th.—All the Courts of this city, including the Superior Court, have adjourned to the third Monday in May, owing to the present State of affairs. A Messenger arrived yesterday, on his way to Montgomery, from Galveston, Texas, to consult with President Davis about the defense of the Texas coast. There is much excitement in Galveston on account of War news. The City Council is in extraordinary session, expressing a feeling of resistance.

Louisville, Ky., April 16th.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of those opposed to Mr. Lincoln's new ruling, was held to-night. About 3,000 present. Resolutions were adopted that Kentucky would not permit the Federal Government to march troops against the Confederate States, and would share the latter's destiny if War must come.

St Louis, April 16th.—It is understood Gov. Jackson will refuse to comply with Secretary Cameron's requisition for troops.

Pauduch, April 16th.—A meeting, irrespective of party, adopted resolutions recommending the Governor to convene the Legislature immediately; that we are with the South in interest and action; that the Governor be requested to issue a proclamation for the Legislature to meet at Frankfort at an early day as possible to consider our future destiny; calling on the people of Kentucky to ignore party feeling.

Detroit, April 16th.—At an informal meeting of citizens to-day, at which Governor Blair was present, it was resolved, in order to expedite equipment of troops required from Michigan, to raise $100,000 by private subscription. A large portion of the amount was subscribed on the spot. The balance will be raised immediately. Gen. Cass responded.

Troy, April 16.—A great Union demonstration took place in this city last night.—The meeting adjourned and in a body proceeded to Gen. Wool's residence, who responded in a strong Union speech.

New Haven, April 16.—The Mechanics' Bank of this city this A. M., tendered to the Governor $25,000 for the use of the State, in supporting the National Government.

Norfolk, April 16.—One hundred guns were fired here, and there is great rejoicing over the fall of Ft. Sumter. An order has been received to fit out the U. S. steamer Merrimac, immediately, and to tow out all war vessels from the port.

Lawrence, April 16.—Our city Government this A. M. appropriated $5,000 for the benefit of the families of those who have volunteered to defend the country's Flag.

Boston, April 16.—The bark Manhattan which arrived here this A. M., from Savannah, had a secession flag hoisted. A crowd proceeded to the wharf and compelled the Captain to take it down, and hoist the Stars and Stripes.

Concord, N. H., April 16.—New Hampshire responds to the President's proclamation, and will furnish the troops required. The Concord Union Bank has tendered a loan of $20,000 to the Governor, and all the directors with the cashier agree to contribute $100 each to the support of such families of this city, as may fall in the defense of the flag of the country.

Fort Kearney, April 16.—Capt. Bee, en route for South Carolina, accompanied by Capt. Stone on leave of absence, R. S. Ward, sutler, all from Ft. Larrimie, arrived here yesterday evening, and left to-day. It is understood here that Capt. Bee will join the southern army.

Louisville, April 16th.—The Courier of tomorrow will publish the following reply to the Secretary of War:

"Your dispatch is received. In answer, I say emphatically, Kentucky will furnish no troops for the wicked purpose of subduing her sister Southern States.

B. MAGOFFIN, Gov. Ky.